Confirmation of Aboriginality Application Form

Confirmation of Aboriginality

Your Aboriginal heritage is a very personal thing that does not require you to have a "letter of confirmation" to identify and celebrate your heritage and culture. However, you may be required to provide a "Confirmation of Aboriginality" when applying for Aboriginal specific services and or programs such as;

- University Courses.
- Aboriginal Housing / Dept. of Housing (such as targeted housing or waiting lists)
- Employment (identified positions for Aboriginal people)
- Medical/Dental (sometimes required to access Aboriginal specific services.)

These are just a few examples of what a "Confirmation of Aboriginality" is used and needed for. These and other identified services and programs are intended to address key issues experienced within Aboriginal communities, and a confirmation of Aboriginality ensures that this intention is honored throughout our community.

Do I meet the requirement for official confirmation?

Confirmations of Aboriginality are provided by Mungabareena Aboriginal Corporation when an applicant can satisfy the following three requirements;

- The applicant is of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Descent.
- The applicant identifies as being an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person.
- The applicant is known to and accepted by the Albury/Wodonga Aboriginal community as such.

If you are not from the Albury/Wodonga or surrounding areas and/or not associated with the local Aboriginal community Mungabareena will be unable to confirm your Aboriginality. You must seek confirmation from the area that your Aboriginality originates.

Mungabareena acknowledges the displacement experienced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. If you're unsure where your Aboriginality originates from, we recommend speaking to the following:

- Immediate and or extended family
- Aboriginal Lands Councils
- Link Up
- Dept. of Aboriginal Affairs
- Local Libraries

Decision Making and Notification

All applications are reviewed at the nearest scheduled board of director's meetings, applicants will be notified by their preferred contact method within 14 days of the board's decision.

Should your application not be accepted, in no way does Mungabareena imply that you are not Aboriginal.
